Living the Good News:

How Reading the Bible as a Church Guides our Journey of Faith

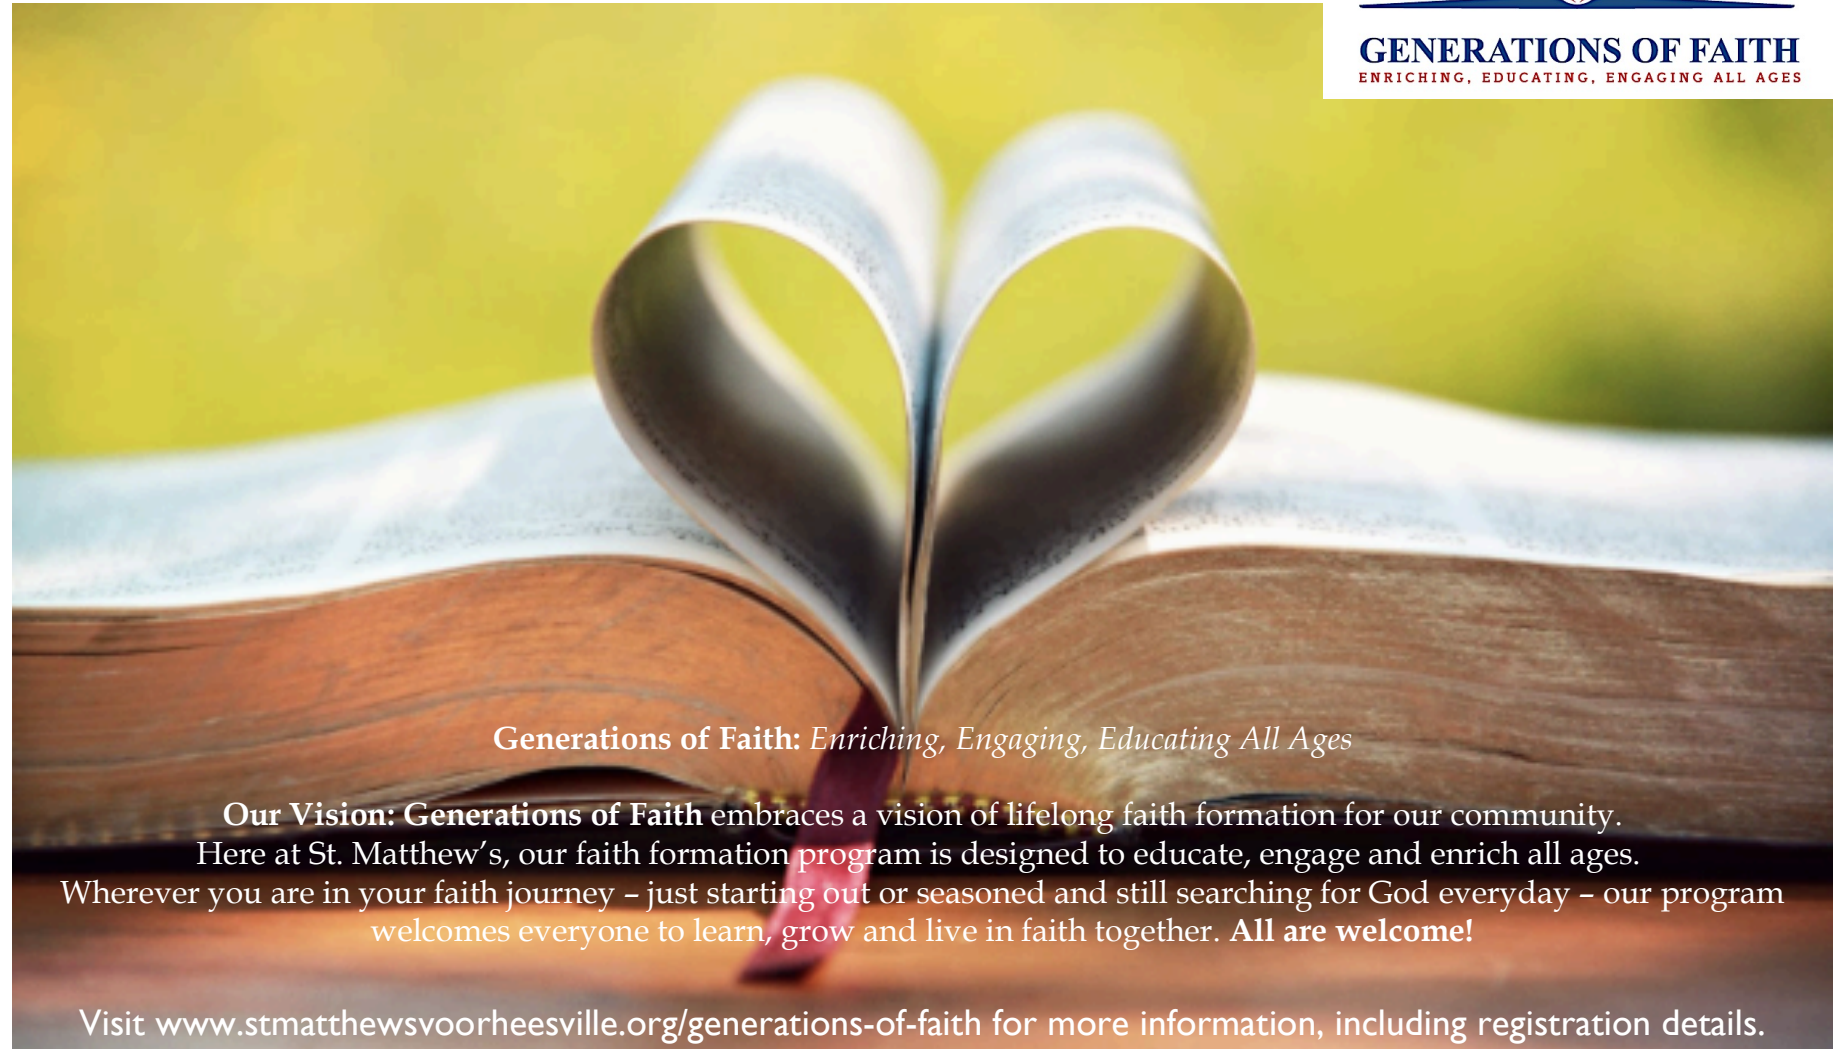

Build your biblical knowledge:

Deepen your understanding of the content, structure and organization of the Bible ... and build confidence in navigating its pages.

Learn about the lectionary: How much of the Bible would you hear if you went to Mass every Sunday for 3 years? Would you make it through the whole Bible if you went to Mass every day? What's the history and logic behind the lectionary – the schedule of Bible readings proclaimed at Mass? Are Catholics the only Christians who follow a lectionary? Learn all this and more!

Discover how reading the Bible as a Church guides our journey of faith: Our most basic Christian beliefs and sacraments flow from our sacred scriptures. Dive into the lectionary to discover how the Bible, as proclaimed through the liturgy, guides our lifelong journey of faith.

Generations of Faith: Enriching, Engaging, Educating All Ages

Our Vision: Generations of Faith embraces a vision of lifelong faith formation for our community. Here at St. Matthew's, our faith formation program is designed to educate, engage and enrich all ages. Wherever you are in your faith journey – just starting out or seasoned and still searching for God everyday – our program welcomes everyone to learn, grow and live in faith together. All are welcome!
